Dear Mr. Wood:

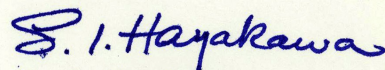

Congratulations on having earned the highest rank offered by the Boy Scouts of America, that of Eagle Scout. I enthusiastically commend you on your great achievement!

Not every youth has the will nor the ability to gain such distinction. Your record, an imposing one of accomplishment for a young man less than one-third my age, reveals great dedication and service to Scouting as well as tremendous concern for your country.

The people of California are appreciative of your admission to the Eagle Court of Honor. Your family and friends, troop leaders and members, and those you will serve in the future are grateful for the many hours you have spent in study and preparation.

Once again, congratulations. Although I cannot be in attendance as you receive this honor, I can enthusiastically wish you continued spirit and motivation to succeed in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
